

Product Responsibility of Pun Hlaing Siloam Hospitals

Purpose

- Environment and facilities provide a safe, clean and functioning well for the safety of patients, staff and hospital visitors.
- Prevent cross infection which comes from the facilities and environment in the hospital. Facilities and hospital environments includes all components which can potentially lead to the spread of hospital infections (Hospital Acquired Infection): buildings (during construction / renovation), water, air, kitchen, decontamination of patient care equipment, cleaning wards Inpatient and outpatient care, temporary shelter, laundry and trash infectious medical.

Scope

This practice is the responsibility of all medical and non-medical staff working in each unit / department of the hospital.

References

- Private Healthcare License 2007, Private Healthcare law
- Pollution Management in the Hospital
- Utilization and Provision of Clean Water
- Legal and other requirement, Identification and Evaluation of Compliance

Description

- Monitoring and periodic maintenance annually and against the ventilation system in specific areas/ critical such as:
 - Operating Theatre
 - Isolation rooms (source and protection)
 - Cardiac Catheterization
 - Space CSSD
 - Intensive Care Unit / High Dependency Units / Neonate Intensive Care Unit NICU (when indicated)
- Provide water that meets the quality standards recommended by periodically checking the chemical content and bacteria include examination of RO (Reverse Osmosis)
- Ensure procedure providing clean and safe food for patients and the entire hospital staff consistently implemented.
- Ensuring environmental cleaning hospital equipment and facilities held routine and scheduled.
- Hospital waste must be properly managed and disposed accordance with the categories and rules, so as not to cause pollution of the environment or the spread of infection.
- Laundry
 - All soil linen shall be handled with appropriate barriers.

- Contaminated linens need to be labeled and placed in Yellow bags.
- All soil linen being placed in soil linen trolley must be bagged in such a manner to prevent spillage and implosion.

- All process equipment disinfection and sterilization of medical / surgical instruments should be held in locations that have been defined and in accordance with the criteria and methods recommended.

- Conducting Infection Control Risk Assessment any changes or additions to existing structures plan the building is done in the hospital and carry out periodic audits of compliance with the implementation of relevant procedures.